APPENDIX B CANADA WEST BASKETBALL GAME FILM RECORDING PROTOCOL

The following instructions are to be followed by those who are recording Canada West men's and women's basketball games for the purpose of uploading the recording to Synergy Sport Technology*. Those who are doing live web cast recordings should NOT be using the same camera as the one for Synergy Sport recordings and should be following different protocols.

1. Recording should be done from the middle of the sideline with a mounted camera positioned as high in the bleachers as possible.
2. The camera should be adjusted to eliminate any writing on the screen such as date, record, etc. and the camera volume is to be OFF.
3. The camera operator should test the system prior to game time to ensure it is ready to operate.
4. The operator should attempt to provide a panoramic view at all times so that all 10 players on the floor, and the basket being shot at, are in the picture particularly in the quarter-court setting. Close ups are not desirable. The basket and end line that the play is going towards should be at one edge of the screen with the players filling up the rest of the screen (this usually accounts for about one-third of the court). In fast break situations be sure to capture the ball, but it is understood not all players may be in the picture for a short while. When the ball moves quickly, the camera does not need to shift quickly – catch up at an appropriate pace.
5. The camera should be focused to be able to see player numbers.
6. The operator should zoom in on the scoreboard as often as possible. In particular, use quarter and half times, time outs and stoppages of play for overtime, substitution, injury or administrative delays and the final score, but do not leave the camera running during these dead ball periods. Late in the game attempt to show the scoreboard prior to free throws being shot.
7. Do not film pre-game, half time or post-game activities although the camera should be left on until the teams leave the floor and return to their bench areas. Do not film game huddles, time outs, instant replay, coach/bench personnel or cheerleaders.

Refer to Policy 11 of the Canada West Operations Manual for protocols and timelines
